ACTION POINTS

- We must respond to the urgent need to fix education and the family.
- As Africans we must raise a standard of ethical leadership
- Youth leaders must leverage on other sources of capital including creative capital, and intellectual capital.
- Youths must have plans and ideas that are marketable.
- Youths must research opportunities for economic empowerment.
- Youths must remain open minded towards cultural integration, and be comfortable with being uncomfortable, through the social integration process.
- Youths must build for the next generation.
- Youth Leaders must be people of integrity, humility, accountability, and reliable, with a clear action plan.
- Young leaders must deliberately engage in appropriate use of social media platforms and tools, to project information, and feedback that will add value to the world.
- Youths must pursue a global agenda.
- Youths must seek to expand their knowledge and consume information around areas of interest.
- Youths must choose an area of focus, objectives/ reasons and build strategic and productive partnerships.

LIGHT BULB MOMENT

No one can help others until they discover themselves.

Do not be at the mercy of what people think you should be.

Your big dreams are worth the fight!
Rather than take flight, know what you need, how to go about it, build selflessly, and above all don't measure yourself by another.

- Mrs. Zyna Obasi

LIGHT BULB MOMENT

Youths must protect the future they are building, by becoming mindful of the image of themselves they project.

- Ms. Linda Njoku

LIGHT BULB MOMENT

Find out what makes you tick... into wanting to intervene.

Establish a vision and mission.

- Maureen Omeibe
